ROYAL ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

FOUNDATION.

THIS Royal and National Institution was founded in the year 1822 through the patriotic exertions of John Fane (Lord Burghersh), eleventh Earl of Westmorland, and commenced its public work in 1823 under the direct patronage of His Majesty King George IV., whose interest in its welfare was manifested by an annual subscription of one hundred guineas.

OBJECTS.

The objects of the Academy, as set forth in its Charter, are "to promote the cultivation of the science of music, and to afford facilities for attaining perfection in it by assisting with general instruction all persons desirous of acquiring a knowledge thereof," and by a Supplementary Charter granted December 16th, 1910, the privileges of the Institution were extended so as "to do all and all manner of acts and things whatsoever and wheresoever which shall be necessary for or conducive to the effecting or carrying out the objects of the Royal Academy of Music or which the Board of Directors thereof shall in their discretion consider necessary."

HISTORY.

His Majesty King George IV. further evinced his interest in the School by granting it a Royal Charter on June 23rd, 1830. His successors, King William IV., Queen Victoria and King Edward VII., were also Patrons of the Academy, and continued the pecuniary contribution to its funds.

As Prince and Princess of Wales, Their late Majesties King Edward VII. and Queen Alexandra conferred the highest distinction upon the Academy by graciously attending, in person, the Distribution of Prizes in the year 1897, and the present Sovereign, His Majesty King George V., with his Consort, Queen Mary, have indicated their interest in the Institution by heading the list of Royal Patrons.

On the lamented death of the President, H.R.H. the Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, in 1900, the Academy was honoured by the gracious acceptance of the Presidentship by H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught and Strathearn.

ENTRANCE HALL.

[Alex. Corlett.]

During the hundred and thirteen years of its existence, the Academy has laboured steadfastly to achieve the objects of its Founders. Its work in the cause of musical education has been carried on with the help of many eminent musicians and lovers of music under the direction of its former Principals, Dr. William Crotch, 1823; Mr. Cipriani Potter, 1832; Mr. Charles Lucas, 1859; Sir William Sterndale Bennett, 1866; Sir George A. Macfarren, 1875; and Sir Alexander Campbell Mackenzie, 1888.

The Royal Academy of Music originally started in 1823 with a studentship of only twenty. From that year onwards there has been a steady and continuous increase in the number on the roll. To-day, the direction and guidance of the work of the School requires the services of a staff of over one hundred and forty professors.

Of the large number of students who have received their training in the Academy during the one hundred and thirteen years of its life, many have attained to positions of eminence and distinction in all parts of the world.

CONSTITUTION AND GOVERNMENT.

The Academy is incorporated by Royal Charters, granted June 23rd, 1830, December 16th, 1910, and January 10th, 1928, and, as provided therein, is governed by a President, four Vice-Presidents, Board of Directors, Committee of Management, Chairman, and Treasurer, all of whom are elected from among the members of the body corporate. Acting under these are the Principal and the executive officials.

Membership in the Corporation is unlimited, and all classes of Subscribing Members are eligible for election on the Directorate and the Committee of Management.

Subscribing Members have the privilege of being present at and of introducing friends to all public concerts and distributions of awards, etc., so far as space and other circumstances permit. Annual subscriptions are due on January 1st.

THE BUILDING.

During the period extending from March, 1823, to July, 1911, the work of the Academy was carried on in a house in Tenterden Street, Hanover Square, W. Other houses were added as the number of pupils increased, until six houses were absorbed and no further extension could be made.

The need for more commodious and more suitable premises having become urgent, the Governing Bodies secured a new site in the Marylebone Road, centrally situated and easily reached, being close to the termini of three main lines (viz: The Great Western, London and North Eastern and the London, Midland and Scottish Railways). It is within a few minutes' walk of Baker Street and Regent's Park Tube Stations. Omnibuses and coaches stop opposite the main entrance.

The foundation stone of the new building was laid by the late Lord Strathcona on July 14th, 1910. The work of the Academy was transferred to the new premises in time to begin the Session at Michaelmas, 1911, and the building was formally opened by H.R.H. Prince Arthur of Connaught on Saturday, June 22nd, 1912. Six floors of class-rooms, a fine Concert Hall, administrative offices and a restaurant, all centrally heated, formed a luxurious contrast to the cramped out-of-date buildings in Tenterden Street.

THE DUKE'S HALL.

This fine Concert Hall, forming the East Wing of the building, accommodates a choir and orchestra of about 150 and an audience of nearly 700.

It contains a three-manual Organ (by Norman and Beard), the gift of Mrs. Threlfall in memory of her husband, Mr. Thomas Threlfall (Chairman of the Committee of Management, 1888-1907).

On the west wall of the Concert Hall is the Roll of Honour of students and professors who fell in the Great War.

A most important and useful addition to the resources and equipment of the Academy was formally opened by the President, H.R.H. The Duke of Connaught and Strathearn, on Tuesday, October 19th, 1926. On a site immediately adjoining the main Academy building there has been erected an extension containing seating about 200 in the auditorium. The Theatre is equipped with stage, sunk orchestra and every modern adjunct for adequate production of plays, operas, etc.

THE DUKE'S HALL.

Adjoining is the

which seats about 150 people.

The Extension also contains a number of classrooms, and although these do not materially increase the earning power of the Academy, they provide much-needed facilities for carrying on work specially important in the training of our students. The Opera and Dramatic Classes, the Ensemble Classes and the Teachers' Training Courses have all benefited, and increased efficiency and comfort have followed from the new and improved conditions under which such work is done.

THE LIBRARY.

The Library is open to Professors and Students for reference and study every week-day during each term (special holidays excepted), from 10 to 1 and from 2 to 5 (Saturdays 10 to 12.30 only). Books and Music may be borrowed from 11.30 to 12.30 and 2.30 to 3.30 (Saturdays 11.30 to 12.30 only).

Students who desire the privilege of borrowing works from the Lending Library must sign an agreement and maintain a deposit of 10s. with the Cashier.

The use of the Library is a very valuable privilege to Students; nearly 4,000 volumes are in circulation per term.

The Library of the Royal Academy of Music was formed at the foundation of the Institution, by various Gifts and Bequests, the most important of these being : (1) The Library of Richard J. S. Stevens. (2) A collection of Orchestral Scores, published and presented by Messrs. Novello & Co., which was supplemented in 1912 by a gift of their complete collection of the Vocal Scores of Operas, Oratorios, Cantatas, etc. (3) The Library of C. Ainsley Barry, containing over 250 Full Scores of Orchestral, Choral works and Concertos and many volumes of Music Literature. (4) The Library of Arthur Prendergast—some 200 volumes—consisting chiefly of old Church Music, including the Masses of Cherubini, Haydn and Mozart and Anthems and Services by the great English Church composers. Operas of the modern French school and most of the Vocal and Instrumental works of Charles Gounod, Ballets by Delibes and Widor; also Operas by Gluck, Meyerbeer, Mozart, Rubinstein and Wagner.

The Library has been further enriched by valuable bequests and gifts of Music from many friends of the Academy.

THE REFERENCE LIBRARY.

Comprises—in addition to the complete Editions of the works of Bach, Beethoven, Berlioz, Handel, Mozart, Purcell, Schubert, Schumann and Wagner, etc.—full Scores of Overtures, Symphonies and other Orchestral works, Dramatic and Choral works, Concertos for various Instruments; a large collection of Sixteenth and Seventeenth Century Music; early theoretical works and treatises, and many Manuscripts.

THE LENDING LIBRARY.

Comprises: Sheet Music and volumes of Solos, Duets, Studies, etc., for Pianoforte and other Instruments, Vocal Scores of Operas, Oratorios, Cantatas, Masses, etc. Chamber Music, Vocal Albums, Tutors, Theoretical Works and Music Literature; also a collection of some 560 volumes, comprising the chief standard works in Prose and Poetry, and Text-books on English Literature, left to the Library in 1922 by Miss Annie M. Child, who was a Professor of Elocution at the R.A.M. for many years. This splendid bequest is of the greatest help and educational value to Students, especially to those whose studies include Elocution and the Drama.

For further information respecting the Lending Library, see printed Rules.

As the Royal Academy of Music is affiliated to the London University, Students have the privilege of borrowing books, etc., from the London University Music Library at South Kensington.

THE ANGELINA GOETZ LIBRARY.

(Founded in Memory of Angelina Goetz by her children in 1903.)

This library contains about 350 full orchestral scores of modern works. By the Deed of Gift it is provided that: "all members of the Corporate Body and Students in the R.A.M., and any other person who has the special permission of one of the Donors, the Principal, Warden, or Secretary of the Academy, shall have access during term-time, from 10 to 5 daily, except on Saturdays, when it is closed at 1 o'clock."

THE RESTAURANT.

THE RESTAURANT.

In the basement is the Students' Restaurant and Professors' Luncheon Room and Rest Rooms. The Restaurant seats about 200 at separate tables.

Luncheons, teas, and light refreshments are obtainable at moderate prices (tariff is displayed at the restaurant door) at all times during Academy hours, the arrangements for the Restaurant being under the supervision of the House Committee.

STAFF.

The work of the Academy is carried on by a body of Professors at present of the number of one hundred and forty.

Advisory Boards are chosen from the whole staff to consider and assist the Principal with reference to technical questions arising out of the various subjects studied in the Academy. At the present time, there are seven of these Boards, which meet regularly throughout the Academic Year :—

- (1) Harmony.
- (2) Aural Training.
- (3) Singing.
- (4) Pianoforte.
- (5) Stringed Instruments.
- (6) Organ.
- (7) Elocution.

For list of Professors see pp. 7 to 9.

REVIEW WEEKS.

To supplement and to lead up to the Annual Examinations in the Midsummer Term, the Committee of Management have decided to set aside for special intensive work one whole week towards the end of each of the Michaelmas and Lent Terms.

The work in the Academy during these special weeks will be arranged so as :—

- (1) To provide opportunity for students to co-ordinate their separate studies, and to survey and summarise their work during the previous part of the term ;
- (2) to provide special lectures, lecture-lessons and recitals designed to illustrate and explain the broad principles and necessary conditions of physical and mental development which underlie all educational and artistic progress ;
- (3) to afford special indication as to the standards and attainments expected in the Midsummer Examinations from both a Technical and an Interpretative point of view.

The dates of these special weeks are :—

Michaelmas Term	2nd—7th Dec., 1935.
Lent Term	23rd—28th Mar., 1936.
Midsummer Term (Examinations)	29th June—4th July, 1936.

During these three weeks no ordinary lessons will be given in the Academy. Students will, however, be obliged to attend such lectures, etc., as the Principal may determine, in order to qualify for their Annual Awards.

ANNUAL EXAMINATION OF STUDENTS.

Annually, in the Midsummer Term, every Student who has attended throughout the Academic Year is required to undergo an examination in each subject of study pursued by him or her. These examinations are conducted by Boards of Examiners appointed by the Committee of Management.

To such Students as show sufficient progress awards are made as follows : For Principal Studies, Composition, and Aural Training :—

To Students of one or more years' standing, Commendation or Bronze Medals.

To Students of two or more years' standing, who have already taken bronze medals, Silver Medals.

To Students of three or more years' standing, who have already taken silver medals, Certificates of Merit.

For Languages—Prize Books.

For Second and other Studies, "Honourable Mention." Those who have twice previously obtained "Honourable Mention" will be permitted to enter as for Principal Studies.

SOCIAL INTERESTS AND GENERAL ACTIVITIES.

Besides attending the compulsory lessons and classes of the curriculum, a Student will derive much benefit and stimulus from mingling in the corporate life of the Academy and by taking part in at least some of the following social interests and general activities. The cultivation of a good spirit of team work is actively encouraged by the Academy Authorities.

With the exception of the R.A.M. Club (particulars of which can be obtained from the Hon. Secretary of the Club), the Student is afforded the opportunity of taking part in the following without extra fee :—

The Senior Orchestra.—Students who pass an examination in technique, tone and sight reading, play in this Orchestra on Tuesday and Friday afternoons from two to five o'clock.

All Students are encouraged to attend these rehearsals, even those who do not play in the Orchestra, since valuable advice on orchestral playing and musical interpretation can be obtained, and a large knowledge of the orchestral repertoire acquired.

Students who are sufficiently advanced can, on the recommendation of their Professors, play Concertos and sing Arias and Songs with Orchestral Accompaniment. Students whose Principal Study is Conducting (see p. 22) when sufficiently advanced may be afforded the opportunity of conducting the Senior Orchestra.

The String Orchestra meets on Wednesday afternoons from two to four o'clock. Students must attend this orchestra when called upon by the Principal.

The Conductors' Orchestra meets on Friday mornings from ten to one o'clock.

Students whose Principal Study is Conducting have the opportunity of gaining practical experience by conducting this Orchestra in prepared works.

The Ensemble Classes are held for the purpose of enabling Students to obtain practice in ensemble playing of all kinds. A permanent string quartet has been formed for the special purpose of affording pianists the opportunity of practising ensemble works in which the Pianoforte is an important factor.

Students are encouraged to play Chamber Music amongst themselves, and also to perform, at the discretion of their professors, at the various Concerts held during the Academic Year. Opportunities are given to all Students at the Academy of hearing Chamber Music, and amongst other recent features of the class may be mentioned the performance during the Academic Year 1927-28, of the complete String Quartets (eighty-three in all) of Haydn, during the Academic Year 1933-34, of the complete String Quartets of Beethoven, and during the Lent Term 1935 of the complete Chamber Music Works of Brahms.

The Opera Class.—The study of Opera is carried on as an adjunct to the training of Singers, all of whom are expected to take part in this class when sufficiently advanced.

Frequent performances of both Grand and Light Opera take place in the Academy Theatre and elsewhere throughout the year, and it is the object of the Class to enable every properly qualified Student to obtain experience in all kinds of rôles—principal and secondary. Advanced Students are given opportunities of acquiring experience in producing and stage-managing.

The Choirs.—The Choir meets on Tuesdays at 5.30 p.m. for the purposes of rehearsing and preparing Choral Works, both a capella and accompanied. A Class for Church Choir Training is also held, on Wednesdays at 12.15 p.m.

The Dramatic Class meets on Wednesdays during the Academic Year from ten to one o'clock. Plays, both classical and modern, are rehearsed and when ready are performed at the end of each term in the Duke's Theatre. Advanced Students have opportunities of acting as producers and stage-managers at public performances. The fee for this class is £3 3s. od. per term.

The R.A.M. Club was founded in 1889, with the object of promoting friendly intercourse between those who are, or have been, connected with the Royal Academy of Music. Meetings—Social and Musical—are held periodically, and the R.A.M. Club Magazine, published each term, is sent to all members.

Past and present Students, Professors, and some others are eligible for membership. Further particulars may be obtained from the Hon. Secretary of the Club, at the Royal Academy of Music.

Present Students may belong to the "Students' Branch" which arranges Social and Sports meetings.

STUDENTS' CONCERTS AND RECITALS.

Evidence of the progress made by Students is given at the Concerts held during term in the Duke's Hall at the Academy, and by the Public Chamber, Choral and Orchestral Concerts, and Organ Recitals given from time to time in such Concert Hall as the Committee of Management may select.

Recitals and Concerts by Students of individual Professors are given in the Centenary Lecture Hall at the Academy from time to time. Due notice of these is given by announcement on the Academy notice-boards.

Friends of Students, Subscribing Members of the Institution, etc., may be admitted to these Concerts subject to limitations as to space and other circumstances.

Students who wish to perform with Orchestra or Ensemble Classes, or at any of the regular Concerts, etc., indicate, on the appropriate vouchers, particulars of what they are prepared to perform.

SUPERANNUATION FUND.

In 1925 a Superannuation Fund on a contributory basis was established for the benefit of the Professorial and Clerical Staffs of the Royal Academy of Music.

Under this scheme, any member of these staffs who reaches the retiring age enters into the enjoyment of a Pension, the annual payments of which, if so desired, can be commuted for a proportionate single payment.

THE PHILIP LESLIE AGNEW FUND.

Through the sympathetic generosity of the Chairman of the Committee of Management a Fund was established on the 22nd September, 1927, the purposes of which—to quote the governing declaration of trust—are:—

“For exceptional expenditure in such manner as the Committee of Management may from time to time consider conducive to the artistic work of the Academy including temporary financial assistance of any member of the Professional or Clerical Staffs or any Student or employee of the Academy in the opinion of the Committee of Management in need of such assistance. Generally for the promotion of the objects for which the Academy was incorporated in such manner as the Committee of Management may from time to time decide, but subject to the following limitations (that is to say) no part of the dividends or income of the fund shall be applied in or towards: Payment of the Tuition Fees of Students of the Academy; The provision of Scholarships or Prizes or other awards for proficiency; Defraying the ordinary current expenses of the Academy.”

STUDENTS' AID FUND.

It is open to any person to assist students by paying the whole or any portion of their fees, by subscribing to the Students' Aid Fund, or by founding Exhibitions.

The Students' Aid Fund consists of a Capital sum of about £4,700 contributed in the course of the last forty-three years by friends of the Academy and patrons of the Art, the interest on which is advanced for the purpose of reducing the fees of deserving students.

In administering this Fund—which is all too small to meet the demands made on it—the most careful consideration is paid to the circumstances and qualifications of each beneficiary.

While the eventual repayment of the sums advanced is not made a condition of benefit, the Committee of Management welcome all efforts made to testify in this practical manner to the value and usefulness of the Fund.

Students absent through illness must immediately send written notification to the Secretary with a Medical Certificate.

The Examination in the Elements of Music (Paper Work) will be held towards the end of the LENT TERM, and all students who have studied since the beginning of the current Academic Year must attend. Students who do not obtain at least the following number of marks will be held ineligible for an award in any of the ensuing Midsummer Examinations, for which they are required nevertheless to present themselves.

| (a) Those of not more than three terms' studentship (including the term current) .. | 55 |
| (b) Those of not more than six terms' studentship (including the term current) .. | 65 |
| (c) Those above six terms' studentship (including the term current) .. | 75 |

Students who are absent from the Prize Distribution without the permission of the Principal will forfeit any award they may have gained at the Annual Examinations.

N.B.—Professors and Pupils are requested to observe that the dates of all Academy events are published in the Calendar or by notice in the Hall. The Committee do not bind themselves to give any further or other notice to Students who may wish to compete for any of the Scholarships or Prizes. Students desirous of entering for such must sign their names in a book kept for that purpose in the office, and under no circumstances will entries be received after the dates announced in the Calendar or elsewhere.

All Students competing for any Prize or Scholarship must attend the Academy at the time appointed for such Competition and remain in the Building until the completion of the competition. Failure to observe this rule will entail disqualification.

By Order of the Committee of Management,

PUPILS.

No one over 16 years of age will be allowed to remain in the Junior School ; but those who have been admitted as pupils will be permitted to complete the Academic Year.

The Academic Year extends from the end of September to the end of July, and is divided into three terms, Michaelmas, Lent and Midsummer, with intervening Vacations at Christmas and Easter. (For Terminal Arrangements, see p. 16.)

The entry form will be found inset opposite.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

All Pupils have to sign a form agreeing to keep the same regulations as are set out on pp. 40-43.

Pupils in the Junior School are not Students of the Academy, nor are they entitled to the privileges which such studentship confers.

No pupil shall be allowed to undertake any public engagement without the sanction of the Principal.

Pupils of the Junior School not being classed as Students of the Academy are not debarred from competing for scholarships for which they are otherwise eligible.

Pupils and ex-pupils of the Junior School are not allowed to add the letters R.A.M. to their names.

All Pupils must fill in a pupil's address voucher provided for that purpose. Also all changes of Address must be immediately notified. Failure to comply with this requirement will, in all cases, render the pupil liable for any consequences which may ensue.

BEQUESTS OF MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.

The Academy has from time to time benefited by the generosity of friends who have given or bequeathed valuable instruments as objects of artistic interest, or for the use of talented students approved by the Committee of Management and under conditions framed by them. Amongst the most important of these are:—

A Grand Pianoforte by Steinway, and

A Violin by Stradivarius, bequeathed by the late Mrs. Lewis Hill.

The late Sir James Dewar, Violin with bow.

The late Dr. Ernest Mathews, Double Bass.

Mr. Tracy Robson, a French Horn.

Mrs. Pearson, a Violin and 'Cello.
